I'm Deise (read "Daisy"), a black Brazilian illustrator currently based in Lisbon, Portugal.
I have a BA in Digital Design (FIT, Brazil) and another one in Animation Film (UFMG, Brazil).
I love drawing fun characters, exploring different textures and geometrical shapes in my designs. I also love to work on projects with big purposes and causes that I fight for, especially those that involve the idea of female empowerment and diversity. In my spare time I love playing board games, traveling to different cultures and cooking desserts!
