My name is Indira Muzbulakova and I'm a digital illustrator from Almaty, Kazakhstan. I loved to draw a lot, admiring works of Disney and read a lot, especially fairy tales, with beautiful illustrations in them. This shaped the world view of a dreamer and directed my artistic career. Aspiration to develop my skills led me to the world of digital art. Later, I had an experience of working on different individual projects and commissions. My artworks are inspired by magic, fantasy and nature. I love to paint cozy things, especially cute animal characters and their adventures.
